DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 11-13,15,19-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Smith et al '701. This patent discloses the determination of wear in mechanical machines via sensing the electrical draw of a subsystem and subsequent determination of the wear in a second subsystem. Note in particular column 4, lines 20-26 which refer to a material inference.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 14,16,17,23-26,28-33,36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Smith et al. the limitations of these claims would have been obvious design choices only once the basic process was known. For example, the patent states that the process can be used in pulverizers. Coal grinders are well known pulverizers so that in claims 28+, the use of the wear determination system would have been well within the scope of one skilled in the art. Also, the particular frequency machine used within the process would have been obvious once the use of the process in a mechanical machine was known as in the patent.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 8/18/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Column 4, lines 20-26 refer to a material inference which applicant states is not shown in the reference. Also, the 35 USC 103 rejection is proper because the limitations found therein would have been well within the scope of one skilled in the art and of no patentable merit.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
